

Renee Bull is an enterprising spirit who has aspirations of pursuing multiple business ventures. Bull has currently launched her first business, a custom jewelry line, Intricate Designs. She is also pursuing a bachelors degree in Business (or Communications)

Since 2011, Renee has worked with youth throughout Delaware. Her commitment to youth advocacy with the city of Wilmington, Delaware was recognized by a Facebook friend who encouraged her to pursue the title of Miss Delaware USA.

With much fortitude, Renee gave it a try and in her first attempt placed second runner up in the 2014 competition. Renee stayed focused on the goal of winning the crown while balancing her commitment to community service. By the end of 2014, Bull launched her first nonprofit, “Girls2Girls” which is designed to encourage girls between girls 8-15 to take advantage of their education and make positive choices. Renee lives by the motto: “Do nothing out of selfish ambition, rather in humility value others above yourself.”

When competing in the 2015 Miss Delaware USA pageant Renee wanted to make her family and mentors proud by showing them that their investment in her dream was a sound choice. Renee believes that her commitment to mentorship is what is most important and plans to use her title as platform to reach even more youth during her reign.
